MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Support)

SUBJECT: Proposed Regulations - Education Allowances

1. Pursuant to your request, this memorandum summarizes the considerations necessary for your review of the proposed [redacted] regulations on education allowances which are attached. Education allowances are authorized by an amendment to the Foreign Service Act approved earlier this year. These regulations have been coordinated with the offices having primary interest in this matter and have their concurrence (see attached concurrence sheet). The changes suggested by the Office of the General Counsel and your Office subsequent to the initial concurrence by the other offices of primary interest were recoordinated with them and also received their concurrence.

therein. The travel grant regulation has been drafted and will be transmitted to the Regulations Control Staff for Agency coordination at an early date.

5. In view of the fact that full coordination with the offices of primary interest has already been completed by this Office, you may, in the interest of time, wish to approve these regulations for publication without further coordination.
